

An Act relating to dental insurance; defining terms; prohibiting certain acts related to dental services; requiring identification of certain third party entities; requiring contracting entities to maintain means of communication for providers; requiring certain contractual terms; requiring third party entities' compliance with provider contracts; establishing terms of compliance with this act; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.