

An Act relating to health insurance; creating the State Innovation Waiver; allowing for multiple waiver submissions; establishing certain procedures for development; requiring certain entities to submit information for approval; authorizing the Insurance Department to review health insurance market after waiver implementation; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.