

An Act relating to public employees; prohibiting certain criminal background checks prior to employment interview; stating application; stating exceptions; authorizing appointing authorities to inform applicants of potential criminal background checks; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.