

An Act relating to insurance; granting Insurance Commissioner authority to create certain insurance program; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.