

An Act relating to hospitals; requiring certain facilities to submit certain information to the State Department of Health; requiring certain facilities to provide certain information to certain persons; directing facilities to provide certain notice at certain time; providing certain construction; directing promulgation of rules; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.