

An Act relating to foster care; permitting children to remain in foster custody under certain circumstances; providing certain construction; directing promulgation of rules; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.