

An Act relating to ownership of impounded water; stating impounded water shall be considered private right of landowner; stating exceptions; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.