

An Act relating to hospitals; requiring submission of certain verification from hospitals to the State Commissioner of Health; providing standards for verification; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.