

An Act relating to firearms; allowing certain persons to carry a firearm; providing for a handgun qualification course for certain persons developed by the Council on Law Enforcement Education and Training; providing for an identification card for certain persons and return of the identification card under certain circumstances; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.