

An Act relating to property; creating the Standby Electric Generator Act; providing short title; defining term; prohibiting property owners' associations from restricting standby electric generators; authorizing certain regulation of standby electric generators; requiring reasonable enforcement; prohibiting certain restrictions; stating procedures for compliance determinations; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.