

An Act relating to the Oklahoma Department of Agriculture, Food, and Forestry taking possession of abandoned and stolen property; authorizing the Department to take possession of, store, and dispose of certain abandoned and stolen property; requiring the department to maintain a record; requiring suitable storage; authorizing the Department to sell property under certain circumstances; requiring proceeds from the sale of property, less expenses, to be paid to the owner upon demand; allowing proceeds from the sale of unclaimed property, less expenses, to be paid into the State Department of Agriculture Revolving Fund; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.