

An Act relating to child competency proceedings; defining terms; authorizing parties to raise certain issue; requiring appointment of counsel under certain circumstances; creating certain presumption; allowing certain finding; requiring certain contents for certain motions; authorizing certain competency evaluation; requiring delivery of certain information to evaluator; establishing requirements for certain evaluator; requiring certain report; specifying required contents of certain report; establishing procedures for certain evaluation; authorizing additional evaluation under certain circumstances; requiring competency hearing; establishing procedures for certain proceedings; requiring certain written determination; authorizing certain actions; allowing order for certain services; specifying requirements for certain services; requiring certain plan and reports; establishing requirements for certain reports; requiring provision of copies of certain reports; allowing certain hearing; stating effect of certain dismissal; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.