

An Act relating to marriage; providing short title; prohibiting governmental entities from requiring certain individuals and entities to conduct certain services under certain circumstances; stating certain actions non-applicable to certain refusal of activities; allowing procedure for replacement of services under certain circumstances; prohibiting disciplinary action under certain circumstances; defining term; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.