

An Act relating to torts; defining terms; providing for civil immunity for damage or destruction to certain property; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.