

An Act relating to epinephrine injections; providing definitions; permitting physicians to prescribe epinephrine auto-injectors to certain entities; permitting certain entities to stock epinephrine; providing standards for storage of epinephrine; authorizing certain persons to prescribe and administer epinephrine injections under certain circumstances; requiring training for persons performing epinephrine injections; providing standards for training; directing Board of Pharmacy to develop and issue certain certificates; providing immunity for certain acts; directing promulgation of rules; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.