

An Act relating to professional services and products; providing short title; defining terms; prohibiting certain contracts, solicitations and acquisitions without certain compliance; providing exception; providing for rescinding of contract for violation; directing review of state contracts within certain time for certain compliance; requiring replacement contract for noncompliance; construing application of certain provisions; establishing jurisdiction for certain proceedings; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.