

An Act relating to prisons and reformatories; providing definitions; stating authority of the Pardon and Parole Board; directing Pardon and Parole Board to adopt certain policies, procedures and assessment instruments; authorizing certain prisoners to request conditional release; providing hearing procedures; providing procedures for granting and denying conditional release requests; providing for the appointment of guardians for certain prisoners who request conditional release; providing guidelines for discharge plans of certain prisoners; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.