

An Act relating to abortion; requiring physicians to preserve fetal tissue under certain circumstances; directing State Board of Health to promulgate rules; providing standards for rules; providing punishments for violations; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.