

An Act relating to operating a wireless communication device while driving; defining terms; prohibiting the use of a wireless communication device under certain circumstances; providing penalties; providing exceptions; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.