

An Act relating to telemedicine; requiring telemedicine services covered by Medicaid and provided to patients in rural or urban areas to be reimbursed at certain rate; directing promulgation of rules; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.