

An Act relating to the Department of Human Services; permitting Department to contract with certain entities for certain evaluation; providing funding for certain contract; specifying contents of evaluation; requiring completion by certain date; directing submission of certain report; prohibiting authorization of certain contracts without legislative approval; directing promulgation of rules; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.