

An Act relating to health information technology; creating the Health Information Technology Advisory Board; stating purpose; directing meeting schedules; providing for a quorum; providing for selection of chair, vice-chair, and secretary; providing for appointments; specifying grounds for removal; prohibiting member liability; prohibiting receipt of certain gifts; providing certain construction; providing for attendance via teleconference; prohibiting certain persons from serving on Board; stating that no compensation will be provided for members; establishing procedure for filling board vacancies; requiring compliance with certain acts; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.