

An Act relating to county zoning; requiring property owners or developers to provide proof of certain water sources prior to development; authorizing boards of county commissioners to establish procedures and fee; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.