

A Joint Resolution calling upon the United States Congress to convene a single issue federal convention called the Balanced Federal Budget Amendment Convention; stating legislative findings and intent; setting forth text of amendment to be presented and voted on at convention; setting forth addendum agreement between State of Oklahoma and other states calling for convention; and directing distribution.