7           forth in subsection A of this section shall result in the entity 8           ceasing to be a religious-based entity immediately upon such 9           failure, but shall not affect an entity's rights, privileges, 10          immunities, status or good standing under the applicable associated 17          of subsection A of this section.

18          C.    Unless otherwise provided in the entity agreement, any 19          disagreement concerning a religious-based purpose shall be 15 the right to receive interests in a religious-based entity.

16 B. Notwithstanding any other provisions of the applicable 17 associated act, formation instrument or entity agreement, and except 18 as required by subsection B of Section 7 of this act, a religious-19 based entity may not, without the approval of the owners of at least 20 eighty percent (80%) of the interests entitled to vote:

6 created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

7           A. Subject to subsection C of this section, in discharging the 8 duties imposed under the associated act, the formation instrument or 9 the entity agreement, each manager shall take into account the 10 religious-based purpose of the entity, as well as other purposes for 11 which the entity may be formed pursuant to the associated act, and 12 each manager shall take reasonable steps to cause the religious-13 based entity to comply with the requirements of Section 7 of this 14 act. Consideration and pursuit by any manager of the religious-15 based purpose of the entity, even if inconsistent with any other 16 stated purposes of the entity or detrimental to the maximization of 17 monetary profits by the entity, will not constitute a violation of 18 any duty otherwise owed by the manager under applicable law. Within 19 a reasonable time after a religious-based entity ceases to qualify 20 as a religious-based entity, the managers shall notify all owners of 21 the failure to qualify.

22           B. No religious-based entity and no manager or owner of a 23 religious-based entity shall have any duty to a person because of 24 any interest of the person in any public benefit that may be created

2 because of any interest materially affected by the conduct of the 3 religious-based entity in such person's capacity as such a 4 beneficiary or potential beneficiary of the religious-based purpose.

5 C. Unless otherwise provided in the entity agreement, no
6 manager shall be personally liable for monetary damages for failure 7 of the religious-based entity to pursue its religious-based purpose 8 or for any act or omission in the course of performing the duties 9 under subsection A of this section, except to the extent such act or 10 omission constitutes a breach of the manager's duty of loyalty, an 11 act or omission not in good faith or which involves intentional 12 misconduct or a knowing violation of law or a transaction from which 13 the manager derived an improper personal benefit.

14 SECTION 10. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified
15 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 710 of Title 18, unless there is 16 created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

17 No act of a religious-based entity and no conveyance or transfer 18 of real or personal property to or by a religious-based entity shall 19 be invalid by reason of the fact that such act or conveyance or 20 transfer by the religious-based entity was contrary to any 21 religious-based purpose of the entity.

22 SECTION 11. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified
23 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 711 of Title 18, unless there is 24 created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

1 the provisions of subsection D of this section with respect to the 2 shares, who continuously holds the shares through the effective date 3 of the merger or consolidation, who has otherwise complied with the 4 provisions of subsection D of this section, and who has neither 5 voted in favor of the merger or consolidation nor consented thereto
6 in writing pursuant to the provisions of Section 1073 of this title 7 shall be entitled to an appraisal by the district court of the fair

13 meant by those words and also membership or membership interest of a 14 member of a nonstock corporation; and "depository receipt" means an 15 instrument issued by a depository representing an interest in one or 16 more shares, or fractions thereof, solely of stock of a corporation, 17 which stock is deposited with the depository. The provisions of 6 available for the shares of any class or series of 7 stock which stock, or depository receipts in respect 8 thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the 9 shareholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote

24

1           b. In addition, no appraisal rights shall be available 2           for any shares of stock, or depository receipts in 3           respect thereof, of the constituent corporation 4           surviving a merger if the merger did not require for 5           its approval the vote of the shareholders of the 7           of Section 1081 of this title.

8           3. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 2 of this 9           subsection, appraisal rights provided for in this section shall be 10          available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a 11          constituent corporation if the holders thereof are required by the 12          terms of an agreement of merger or consolidation pursuant to the 13          provisions of Section 1081, 1082, 1086, 1087, 1090.1 or 1090.2 of 8 depository receipts described in subparagraphs a, b, 9 and c of this paragraph.

10 4. In the event all of the stock of a subsidiary Oklahoma 11 corporation party to a merger effected pursuant to the provisions of 12 Section 1083 of this title is not owned by the parent corporation 13 immediately prior to the merger, appraisal rights shall be available 14 for the shares of the subsidiary Oklahoma corporation.

15 5. Appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of any 16 class or series of stock of a corporation in any amendment, 17 conversion, merger, consolidation or share exchange described in 18 Section 8 of this act. The procedures set forth in subsections D 19 and E of this section shall apply as nearly as practicable.

20 C. Any corporation may provide in its certificate of 21 incorporation that appraisal rights under this section shall be 22 available for the shares of any class or series of its stock as a 23 result of an amendment to its certificate of incorporation, any 24 merger or consolidation in which the corporation is a constituent

1 corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of 2 the corporation. If the certificate of incorporation contains such 3 a provision, the procedures of this section, including those set 4 forth in subsections D and E of this section, shall apply as nearly 5 as is practicable.

6 D. Appraisal rights shall be perfected as follows:

7 1. If a proposed merger or consolidation for which appraisal 8 rights are provided under this section is to be submitted for 9 approval at a meeting of shareholders, the corporation, not less 10 than twenty (20) days prior to the meeting, shall notify each of its 11 shareholders entitled to appraisal rights that appraisal rights are 12 available for any or all of the shares of the constituent 13 corporations, and shall include in the notice a copy of this 14 section. Each shareholder electing to demand the appraisal of the 15 shares of the shareholder shall deliver to the corporation, before 16 the taking of the vote on the merger or consolidation, a written 17 demand for appraisal of the shares of the shareholder. The demand 18 will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the 19 identity of the shareholder and that the shareholder intends thereby 20 to demand the appraisal of the shares of the shareholder. A proxy 21 or vote against the merger or consolidation shall not constitute 22 such a demand. A shareholder electing to take such action must do 23 so by a separate written demand as herein provided. Within ten (10) 24 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the 1 surviving or resulting corporation shall notify each shareholder of 2 each constituent corporation who has complied with the provisions of 3 this subsection and has not voted in favor of or consented to the 4 merger or consolidation as of the date that the merger or 5 consolidation has become effective; or 6 2. If the merger or consolidation is approved pursuant to the 7 provisions of Section 1073 or 1083 of this title, either a 8 constituent corporation before the effective date of the merger or 9 consolidation or the surviving or resulting corporation within ten 10 (10) days thereafter shall notify each of the holders of any class 11 or series of stock of the constituent corporation who are entitled 12 to appraisal rights of the approval of the merger or consolidation 13 and that appraisal rights are available for any or all shares of 14 such class or series of stock of the constituent corporation, and 15 shall include in the notice a copy of this section. The notice may, 16 and, if given on or after the effective date of the merger or 17 consolidation, shall, also notify the shareholders of the effective 18 date of the merger or consolidation. Any shareholder entitled to 19 appraisal rights may, within twenty (20) days after the date of 20 mailing of the notice, demand in writing from the surviving or 21 resulting corporation the appraisal of the holder's shares. The 22 demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation 23 of the identity of the shareholder and that the shareholder intends 24 to demand the appraisal of the holder's shares. If the notice does

1 not notify shareholders of the effective date of the merger or 2 consolidation either:

- 3 a. each constituent corporation shall send a second 4 notice before the effective date of the merger or 5 consolidation notifying each of the holders of any 6 class or series of stock of the constituent 7 corporation that are entitled to appraisal rights of 8 the effective date of the merger or consolidation, or 9 b. the surviving or resulting corporation shall send a 10 second notice to all holders on or within ten (10) 11 days after the effective date of the merger or 12 consolidation; provided, however, that if the second 13 notice is sent more than twenty (20) days following 14 the mailing of the first notice, the second notice 15 need only be sent to each shareholder who is entitled 16 to appraisal rights and who has demanded appraisal of 17 the holder's shares in accordance with this 18 subsection. An affidavit of the secretary or 19 assistant secretary or of the transfer agent of the 20 corporation that is required to give either notice
21 that the notice has been given shall, in the absence 22 of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated 23 therein. For purposes of determining the shareholders 24 entitled to receive either notice, each constituent

1 corporation may fix, in advance, a record date that 2 shall be not more than ten (10) days prior to the date
3 the notice is given; provided, if the notice is given 4 on or after the effective date of the merger or 5 consolidation, the record date shall be the effective 6 date. If no record date is fixed and the notice is 7 given prior to the effective date, the record date 8 shall be the close of business on the day next 9 preceding the day on which the notice is given.

10 E. Within one hundred twenty (120) days after the effective 11 date of the merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting 12 corporation or any shareholder who has complied with the provisions 13 of subsections A and D of this section and who is otherwise entitled 14 to appraisal rights, may file a petition in district court demanding 15 a determination of the value of the stock of all such shareholders; 16 provided, however, at any time within sixty (60) days after the 17 effective date of the merger or consolidation, any shareholder shall 18 have the right to withdraw the demand of the shareholder for 19 appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or 20 consolidation. Within one hundred twenty (120) days after the 21 effective date of the merger or consolidation, any shareholder who 22 has complied with the requirements of subsections A and D of this 23 section, upon written request, shall be entitled to receive from the 24 corporation surviving the merger or resulting from the consolidation

1 a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted 2 in favor of the merger or consolidation and with respect to which 3 demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of 4 holders of the shares. The written statement shall be mailed to the 5 shareholder within ten (10) days after the shareholder's written 6 request for a statement is received by the surviving or resulting 7 corporation or within ten (10) days after expiration of the period 8 for delivery of demands for appraisal pursuant to the provisions of 9 subsection D of this section, whichever is later.

10 F. Upon the filing of any such petition by a shareholder, 11 service of a copy thereof shall be made upon the surviving or 12 resulting corporation, which, within twenty (20) days after service, 13 shall file, in the office of the court clerk of the district court 14 in which the petition was filed, a duly verified list containing the 15 names and addresses of all shareholders who have demanded payment 16 for their shares and with whom agreements regarding the value of 17 their shares have not been reached by the surviving or resulting 18 corporation. If the petition shall be filed by the surviving or 19 resulting corporation, the petition shall be accompanied by such 20 duly verified list. The court clerk, if so ordered by the court, 21 shall give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing on the 22 petition by registered or certified mail to the surviving or 23 resulting corporation and to the shareholders shown on the list at 24 the addresses therein stated. Notice shall also be given by one or

1 more publications at least one (1) week before the day of the 2 hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City
3 of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, or other publication as the court deems 4 advisable. The forms of the notices by mail and by publication
5 shall be approved by the court and the costs thereof shall be borne 6 by the surviving or resulting corporation.

7 G. At the hearing on the petition, the court shall determine 8 the shareholders who have complied with the provisions of this 9 section and who have become entitled to appraisal rights. The court 10 may require the shareholders who have demanded an appraisal of their 11 shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit 12 their certificates of stock to the court clerk for notation thereon 13 of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any shareholder 14 fails to comply with this direction, the court may dismiss the 15 proceedings as to that shareholder.

16 H. After determining the shareholders entitled to an appraisal, 17 the court shall appraise the shares, determining their fair value 18 exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or 19 expectation of the merger or consolidation, together with a fair 20 rate of interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to 21 be the fair value. In determining the fair value, the court shall 22 take into account all relevant factors. In determining the fair 23 rate of interest, the court may consider all relevant factors, 24 including the rate of interest which the surviving or resulting

1 corporation would have to pay to borrow money during the pendency of 2 the proceeding. Upon application by the surviving or resulting 3 corporation or by any shareholder entitled to participate in the 4 appraisal proceeding, the court may, in its discretion, permit
5 discovery or other pretrial proceedings and may proceed to trial 6 upon the appraisal prior to the final determination of the 7 shareholder entitled to an appraisal. Any shareholder whose name 8 appears on the list filed by the surviving or resulting corporation 9 pursuant to the provisions of subsection F of this section and who 10 has submitted the certificates of stock of the shareholder to the 11 court clerk, if required, may participate fully in all proceedings 12 until it is finally determined that the shareholder is not entitled 13 to appraisal rights pursuant to the provisions of this section.

14 I. The court shall direct the payment of the fair value of the 15 shares, together with interest, if any, by the surviving or 16 resulting corporation to the shareholders entitled thereto.
17 Interest may be simple or compound, as the court may direct.
18 Payment shall be made to each shareholder, in the case of holders of 19 uncertificated stock immediately, and in the case of holders of 20 shares represented by certificates upon the surrender to the 21 corporation of the certificates representing the stock. The court's 22 decree may be enforced as other decrees in the district court may be 23 enforced, whether the surviving or resulting corporation be a 24 corporation of this state or of any other state.

1 J. The costs of the proceeding may be determined by the court 2 and taxed upon the parties as the court deems equitable in the 3 circumstances. Upon application of a shareholder, the court may 4 order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any shareholder 5 in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without 6 limitation, reasonable ~~attorney's~~ attorney fees and the fees and 7 expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all 8 of the shares entitled to an appraisal.

9 K. From and after the effective date of the merger or 10 consolidation, no shareholder who has demanded appraisal rights as 11 provided for in subsection D of this section shall be entitled to 12 vote the stock for any purpose or to receive payment of dividends or 13 other distributions on the stock, except dividends or other 14 distributions payable to shareholders of record at a date which is 15 prior to the effective date of the merger or consolidation; 16 provided, however, that if no petition for an appraisal shall be 17 filed within the time provided for in subsection E of this section, 18 or if the shareholder shall deliver to the surviving or resulting 19 corporation a written withdrawal of the shareholder's demand for an 20 appraisal and an acceptance of the merger or consolidation, either 21 within sixty (60) days after the effective date of the merger or 22 consolidation as provided for in subsection E of this section or 23 thereafter with the written approval of the corporation, then the 24 right of the shareholder to an appraisal shall cease; provided

1 further, no appraisal proceeding in the district court shall be 2 dismissed as to any shareholder without the approval of the court, 3 and approval may be conditioned upon terms as the court deems just.

4 L. The shares of the surviving or resulting corporation into 5 which the shares of any objecting shareholders would have been 6 converted had they assented to the merger or consolidation shall 7 have the status of authorized and unissued shares of the surviving 8 or resulting corporation.

9 SECTION 14. This act shall become effective November 1, 2015.
