

Definitions and general provisions; providing for exception of written consent for medical treatment of minors if emergency exists and surgery is necessary for treatment of illness; effective date.