

Public health and safety; requiring physicians to electronically file death certificates by certain date; effective date.