

Public health; providing that certain permits, licenses and fees are not required for certain persons to sell edible goods at certain temporary food establishments; effective date.