Research Analysis

HB 1520, as introduced, authorizes a community partnership board within the Oklahoma Commission on Children and Youth (OCCY) to purchase diapers on behalf of the state and distribute them to indigent families in the community. The measure directs OCCY to promulgate rules establishing qualifications for eligibility in the program and for distribution of the diapers, including distribution through nonprofit organizations. Finally, the bill authorizes OCCY to charge the boards an administrative fee not to exceed three percent.
