1           SECTION 2.   NEW LAW   A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes
2 as Section 6093 of Title 36, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

3           A. Except as provided in subsection B of this section, every policy providing personal injury 4 protection coverage is subject to the following:

5           1. That where the insured under the policy is or would be held legally liable for the personal 6 injuries sustained by any person to whom benefits required under personal injury protection have 7 been paid by another insurer, including workers' compensation, the insurer of the person who would 8 be held legally liable shall reimburse the other insurer for the payment, but not in excess of the 9 amount of damages recoverable; and

1           2. That the issue of liability for that reimbursement and its amount shall be decided by 2 mandatory, binding arbitration between the insurers.

3           B. There shall be no right of reimbursement between insurers under subsection A of this 4 section if the insurer of the person who would be held legally liable for the personal injuries
5 sustained has tendered its policy limit.
