Research Analysis

HB1326 as introduced requires the name of the cemetery on any informational signs.

Prepared By: Aron Storck

Fiscal Analysis

The measure addresses cemetery signs erected beginning November 1, 2011. As the signs will include more information that under current law, the cost for the production of signs is likely to increase slightly, the actual amount of which will depend on the specific requirements of each sign. No significant cost increase is anticipated at present.
