A Resolution proclaiming April 2, 2013, as the 17th Annual 4-H Day at the State Capitol; recognizing 4-H as the largest youth development organization in the state and the nation; and challenging others to join their Revolution of Responsibility.

WHEREAS, 4-H youth across the nation are leading a revolution of responsibility in their communities, focusing on the fourth H -

Health: Health for better living in my club, my community, my country, and my world; and

WHEREAS, 4-H is the largest youth development organization in Oklahoma and the largest in the nation with six million young people; and

WHEREAS, 4-H in Oklahoma reaches 114,000 youth members and 9,000 volunteers annually; and

WHEREAS, 4-H is part of the Oklahoma Cooperative Extension Service provided by Langston University and Oklahoma State University, where youth are encouraged to discover their passion, adopt a growth mindset, practice self-reflection and set goals which contribute to a healthy lifestyle; and

WHEREAS, 4-H has connected youth and their communities with the innovative research and resources from our nation's 106 land-grant universities and colleges for more than 100 years; and

WHEREAS, 4-H youth are the "now", the living, breathing, cultural change agents leading a revolution of responsibility for doing the right thing, breaking through obstacles and making a measurable difference in the communities and state where they live.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE 1ST SESSION OF THE 54TH OKLAHOMA LEGISLATURE:

THAT Tuesday, April 2, 2013, is hereby proclaimed as the "17th Annual 4-H Day" at the State Capitol, celebrating youth who have made an impact on their community and accepted the challenges of a complex and changing world, and challenging others to join their "Revolution of Responsibility".

Adopted by the House of Representatives the 2nd day of April,
2013.
