An Act relating to civil procedure; providing procedure for certain claims or challenges to state statute; requiring ruling by a panel of judges, with exception; requiring written opinion; providing for assumption of original jurisdiction by the Supreme Court; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

SECTION 1. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 990.6 of Title 12, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

A. 1. Any claim or challenge as to the constitutionality of a state statute shall be considered and ruled upon by a panel of at least three district judges of the judicial district in which the case is pending. The panel shall include the district judge assigned to the case and additional district judges assigned randomly. 5 judges may serve on the panel. If a three-judge panel still cannot 6 be formed, the panel shall consist of two judges.

7 3. If the district judge or panel finds a state statute to be
8 unconstitutional, the finding must be made by written opinion.

9 B. The provisions of this section shall not preclude the 10 Supreme Court from assuming original jurisdiction pursuant to 11 Section 4 of Article VII of the Oklahoma Constitution.

12 SECTION 2. This act shall become effective November 1, 2014.
