Research Analysis

HB1004 mirrors the language of sections 48-51 contained in HB1603 (2009).

The measure exempts gun manufacturers, distributors and sellers who lawfully manufacture, distribute or sell firearms from liability for injuries suffered, including wrongful death or property damage, because of use of such firearms by another individual. The exemption does not apply to actions arising from the unlawful sale or transfer of firearms or failure of the firearm to operate in a normal manner due to manufacturing defects.
