Research Analysis

The proposed committee substitute allows parents to make up to $100,000 at the time the students start postsecondary education and still receive an Oklahoma Higher Learning Access Program award if the students qualified for the award prior to the 2014-15 school year. To qualify after the 2014-15 school year, parents must not make more than $50,000 at the time students enroll in postsecondary education.
