Fiscal Analysis

SB1075 requires all fees for security guard and private investigator licenses to be deposited into the CLEET Private Security Revolving Fund. Over the past 36 months, an average $18.33 per month or $220,000 per year has been deposited into the General Revenue Fund from security guard and private investigator license fees. The licenses are valid for three years so the annual amount varies depending upon the renewal cycle. The measure would decrease the General Revenue Fund and increase the Private Security Revolving Fund by approximately $220,000 annually.
