Research Analysis

The engrossed version of SJR 13 designates Route 66 as Oklahoma's Official Bike Route. The measure directs the Department of Transportation to submit an application to the American Association of State Highway and Transportation Officials with the intention of adding Route 66 to the U.S. Bicycle System. The measure authorizes each municipality located along Route 66 to erect markers designating said route. The measure directs the Secretary of State to distribute copies of the resolution to the Department of Transportation.
