1 "Section 5. Each Judicial Officer elected before or after the 2 adoption of this Article shall, unless removed for cause, serve out
3 the term for which he is elected and those Judicial Officers serving
4 at the date of the adoption of this Article, whose Judicial Office
5 comes under the provision of this Article on the date of the 6 expiration of said term, shall be deemed to have been appointed as 7 provided herein and eligible to file a declaration of candidacy to 8 succeed themselves as provided in this Article. If retained in 9 office, the term of each such Judicial Officer shall be six (6)
10 years commencing the second Monday in January following such 11 election.

12 The term and election of each Judicial Officer appointed to fill 13 a vacancy after the adoption of this Article shall be as follows:
14 If such appointed officer has served or will have served twelve (12)
15 months on or before the next general election following appointment, 16 such officer may file for election, unless the appointment of such 17 appointed officer is rejected by two-thirds (2/3) of the House of 18 Representatives and two-thirds (2/3) of the Senate prior to the 19 filing period for such election, for the remainder of the term for 20 which such officer was appointed, or for a ~~six (6) year~~ six-year
21 term, whichever is applicable, within the time and in the manner
22 elected Judicial Officers file their candidacy under this Article.
23 If such appointed officer has not served or will not have served 24 twelve (12) months on or before the next general election following

1 appointment, such officer shall continue in office until the second
2 general election following appointment and may file for selection
3 for the remainder of the term or for a ~~six (6) year~~ six-year term, 4 whichever is applicable, as herein provided. In the event that such 5 appointed officer is rejected by the House of Representatives and 6 the Senate, as set forth in this section, before being elected on a 7 retention ballot, the position shall be declared vacant and shall be 8 filled pursuant to the provisions of this Constitution. No person 9 who has been rejected by both houses of the Legislature shall 10 reapply for the immediate position for which he or she was 11 rejected."
