1 SECTION 2. In the event that any provision of this act is 2 challenged in court in any action alleging a violation of either the 3 Constitution of the United States of America or the State of Oklahoma, 4 the Office of the Attorney General shall determine the amount of 5 state or local funds expended to defend such action. Such 6 determination shall include the number of hours of time spent by 7 any public employee in such defense multiplied by the rate of 8 compensation paid to such employee, as well as the costs of any 9 outside counsel paid for such purpose, and shall include both

1 direct and indirect costs. The Office of the Attorney General
2 shall report such amounts for each calendar quarter to all members
3 of the Legislature.
