Research Analysis

HJR 1062 puts to a vote of the people an amendment to the state constitution that, if approved, would repeal Section 5 of Article II of the Oklahoma Constitution which prohibits public money or property from being used directly or indirectly for any church or system of religion. The proposal would also add a new section prohibiting the Legislature from passing laws respecting an establishment of religion.

Fiscal Analysis

Repealing Section 5 of Article II of the Oklahoma Constitution, also known as the Blaine Amendment, neither requires certain public expenditures nor significantly impacts state revenues.

Other Considerations

Should the addition of enough state questions require the printing of a second ballot page, costs would total approximately $615,000 statewide for the additional page, based on printing costs for the 2016 General Election.
