Research Analysis

SB 234 would allow any full-time peace officer to carry their weapon anywhere in the state while on active duty and when off active duty. The measure provides that off-duty peace officers or reserve peace officers who have a valid handgun license are deemed to have elected to carry a handgun under the authority of the handgun license when carrying a handgun not authorized by the employing agency or when carrying a handgun in a manner or in a place not authorized for off-duty carry by the employing agency.
