Research Analysis

The measure provides that no county election board be required to conduct a regular or special election for any elective municipal office unless the resolution calling for the election sets a candidate filing period of three days to begin not less than fifteen days nor more than twenty days from the date that the resolution is required to be submitted to the county election board. The measure prohibits a resolution calling for a regular or special election from being submitted to the county election board less than sixty days preceding election date.

The measure provides that if any date of the candidate filing period falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or official state holiday, then that filing day will be scheduled for the following business day.
