    documentation may be provided by a physician or licensed medical professional who does not operate in this state solely to provide certification for service or assistance animals. Reliable 3
    supporting documentation must confirm the tenant's disability and 5
    the relationship between the tenant's disability and the need for the requested accommodation. A landlord may not require supporting 6
    documentation from a tenant if the tenant's disability or disability-related need for a service animal or assistance animal is 8
    readily apparent or already known to the landlord. A landlord shall 10
    not be liable for injuries by a person's service animal or 11
    assistance animal permitted on the landlord's property as a knowingly provide fraudulent supporting documentation in connection with such a claim.

B. If the individual pleads guilty or is convicted of the offense of providing fraudulent disability documentation under subsection A of this section, a lessor may evict a lessee collecting any damages and fees associated with eviction. In addition, the lessor is entitled to a damage fee not to exceed One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) from a lessee. Any lessee convicted pursuant to subsection A of this section shall perform thirty (30) hours of community service for an organization that serves individuals with disabilities, or for another entity or organization at the discretion of the court, to be completed not more than six (6) months after the conclusion of the court case.

SECTION 3. This act shall become effective November 1, 2018.
