

(1ST EXTRAORDINARY SESSION)
ENGROSSED HOUSE
BILL NO. 1027

By: Wallace and Casey of the House

and

David and Fields of the Senate

An Act relating to the Department of Public Safety;
imposing restriction related to payment of salaries of troopers; imposing restriction related to furloughs or related actions; prohibiting imposition of limits on fuel consumption and related restrictions related to use of vehicles provided by the Department of Public Safety; and providing for noncodification.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

SECTION 1. NEW LAW A new section of law not to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes reads as follows:

For the fiscal year ending June 30, 2018, the Oklahoma
Department of Public Safety shall not reduce the salary of any state trooper which was in effect on July 1, 2017, or impose furloughs with respect to any state trooper or take any other action to reduce the total time a state trooper who was employed as of July 1, 2017, is available for the performance of law enforcement duties.

SECTION 2. NEW LAW A new section of law not to be
codified in the Oklahoma Statutes reads as follows:

For the fiscal year ending June 30, 2018, the Oklahoma Department of Public Safety shall not impose restrictions on the number of miles which vehicles provided by the Department of Public Safety and driven by state troopers may travel and shall not reduce the amount of fuel available for consumption by such vehicles or in any other manner restrict the range of travel by such vehicles.
