11 BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

12 SECTION 1. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified
13 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 261 of Title 51, unless there is 14 created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

15 This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Oklahoma
16 Business Protection Act".

17 SECTION 2. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified
18 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 262 of Title 51, unless there is 19 created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

20 As used in this act:

21 1. "Customized good" means an item designed specifically for an 22 individual or individuals and not otherwise available in the 23 ordinary course of business; and 24

1        2. "Governmental entity" means any branch, department, agency
2 or instrumentality of state government, or any official or other
3 person acting under color of state law, or any political subdivision
4 of this state.

5        SECTION 3.        NEW LAW        A new section of law to be codified
6 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 263 of Title 51, unless there is 7 created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

8        Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no privately-held 9 business, church or recognized religious organization shall be 10 required by any governmental entity to do any of the following, if 11 it would be contrary to the sincerely held religious beliefs or 12 conscience of the business owner, church or organization regarding a 13 marriage ceremony, lifestyle or behavior:

14        1. Provide any customized goods or any specialized services, 15 accommodations or facilities used in a marriage ceremony or 16 celebration of a specific lifestyle or behavior; or

17        2. Provide any customized goods or any specialized services, 18 accommodations or facilities to be used to promote, advertise or 19 advocate for a specific marriage ceremony, lifestyle or behavior.

20        SECTION 4.        NEW LAW        A new section of law to be codified
21 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 264 of Title 51, unless there is 22 created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

23        A. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no refusal by a 24 privately-held business, church or recognized religious organization

1 to engage in any activity described in Section 3 of this act shall 2 result in:

3 1. A civil claim or cause of action under state or local law
4 based upon such refusal; or

5 2. An action by any governmental entity to penalize, withhold 6 benefits from, discriminate against or otherwise disadvantage any 7 such business, church or organization based upon such refusal under 8 any state or local law.

9 B. Any privately-held business, church or recognized religious 10 organization named in or subject to a civil action, an 11 administrative action or any action by a governmental entity may 12 assert the protections provided in this act as a defense by filing a 13 motion to dismiss such action. If the motion to dismiss is filed in 14 an action before an administrative tribunal, within fifteen (15)
15 days after filing such motion, any party to the action may elect to 16 transfer jurisdiction of the action to a district court with proper 17 venue. Within sixty (60) days after the transfer of jurisdiction, 18 the district court shall issue a ruling as to whether the claimed 19 protection applies. The district court shall not permit any 20 additional discovery or fact-finding prior to making this decision.

21 C. If a governmental entity, or any person asserts a claim or 22 cause of action, or takes any adverse action against a privately-23 held business, church or recognized religious organization in 24 violation of subsection A of this section, the individual shall be

1 entitled, upon motion, to recover reasonable attorney fees, costs
2 and actual damages such business, church or organization incurred as 3 a result of such violation. Such award shall be reduced to 4 judgment.

5 SECTION 5. This act shall become effective November 1, 2017.
