Section 840-2.15. A. The federal Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C., Section 201, et seq., provides for minimum standards for overtime entitlement, and spells out administrative procedures by which covered work time must be compensated. This section is not a comprehensive listing of the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act and regulations promulgated thereunder, and is not intended to conflict with either the Act or the regulations. ~~No~~ Except as otherwise provided by this section, no agency, board, commission, department, institution, bureau, executive officer or other entity

1 of the executive branch shall exceed the minimum overtime
2 entitlement provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act and 3 regulations promulgated thereunder except as herein provided.

4 B. Nothing in this title or the federal Fair Labor Standards
5 Act shall be construed to prohibit an employer from paying an 6 employee who is required to work on a holiday, as defined in Section
7 82.1 of Title 25 of the Oklahoma Statutes, for such work at a rate 8 of two times the employee's regular hourly rate, or from 10 authority; provided, however, any state employee who is required to 11 work on a holiday, as defined in Section 82.1 of Title 25 of the 12 Oklahoma Statutes, in the performance of fire suppression duties

13 shall receive holiday pay at a rate of two times the employee's
14 regular hourly rate.

15 C. Any employee receiving compensatory time consistent with the 16 provisions of the federal Fair Labor Standards Act shall exhaust 17 such compensatory time prior to the taking of annual leave, except 18 where the employee is subject to losing such annual leave due to the 19 application of the accumulation limits in Section 840-2.20 of this 20 title.

21 D. An employee receiving compensatory time under the provisions
22 of subsection A of this section shall be permitted to use accrued 23 compensatory time within one hundred eighty (180) days following the 24 day on which it was accrued, provided the taking of compensatory

1 time does not unduly impact agency operations or the health, safety
2 or welfare of the public, or endanger public property. Agencies
3 shall not be allowed to extend this one-hundred-eighty-day time
4 period for employees in an institutional setting. The balance of 5 any unused compensatory time received but not taken during this time
6 period shall be paid to the employee at the employee's current 7 regular hourly rate.

8 E. Beginning November 1, 2017, any state employee earning less 9 than Thirty Thousand Dollars ($30,000.00) income annually shall 10 receive overtime pay, instead of compensatory time, for all hours
11 worked over forty (40) hours a week.

12 F. As used in this section, "institutional setting" shall mean
13 any agency or part of any agency where twenty-four-hour care, 14 monitoring or supervision is required for patients, clients or
