Research Analysis

HB 1446 provides that no political subdivision of this state can charge any fee for storage of a vehicle after it has been impounded by the political subdivision which exceeds the maximum rates established by the Corporation Commission. The measure provides that no vehicle is to be released from storage by a political subdivision of this state after impoundment unless the owner has paid all applicable storage fees owed to the political subdivision or the fees have been waived by the political subdivision. The measure also provides that a political subdivision storing an impounded vehicle is not to be considered a wrecker or towing service.
