Author:	Rep. Nollan
Date:	2/13/2017
Impact:	$0 to the State

Research Analysis

HB 2159 requires the court clerk to notify the Oklahoma Tax Commission when a defendant fails to enter a plea or timely appear for arraignment. The Tax Commission is to cancel the current registration on any motor vehicle registered by the defendant and place a hold on any future registrations until such time as the defendant satisfies the court.
