Research Analysis

The senate amendments for HB2252 modified some of the criteria to be eligible for a voluntary disclosure agreement.

The measure allows the Oklahoma Tax Commission to bypass judicial approval for interest or penalty waivers for sums less than $25,000. The current monetary threshold is $10,000.

The measure also allows qualifying taxpayers to enter into a voluntary disclosure agreement with the Oklahoma Tax Commission and be eligible for penalty and interest waivers. By reporting any tax liabilities owed by the taxpayer and making arrangements with the commission for the repayment of principal taxes due, the commission will limit the lookback period to three year for annual filed taxes or 36 months for taxes that do not have an annual filing frequency.

Other qualifying taxpayers may also be eligible to enter into modified voluntary disclosure agreements with the commission. With a modified disclosure agreement, penalty and interest waivers are at the discretion of the commission and the lookback period is unlimited.
