Research Analysis

The CCR grants the Governor the authority to remove any gubernatorial appointment. Gubernatorial appointees who required Senate confirmation must also be approved by the Senate prior to removal. Such appointees will serve at the pleasure of the Governor. Likewise, the measure grants the same to appointments made by the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President Pro Tempore of the Senate.

The measure exempts those appointments to any agency, board or commission if the appointment authority is provided for in the Constitution.
